

Libby Wei, MD

1. Hometown - Rockville, MD
2. Undergrad - University of Maryland College Park
3. Medical School - University of Maryland School of Medicine
4. Hobbies? Eating, volleyball, pens, Taylor Swift
5. What do you like about Baltimore? Ekiben, Baltimore's pride and joy
6. Favorite part about being a resident at Maryland? My favorite part about this residency program is that my class was integrated into the ophthalmology program within the first week of intern year and because of that, even as a PGY1, I feel comfortable calling on any of my coresidents and seniors for help at work and can also easily hang out with them outside of work.
