

Upper Chesapeake Women's Care is seeking an outstanding Certified Nurse Midwife to join its practice in Bel Air, Maryland. This versatile position includes working both in an OB/GYN office setting providing exceptional reproductive health care to women and in the hospital managing labor, performing OB deliveries and rounding on patients.

The ideal candidate will be an experienced Registered Nurse who has completed a certified Master's Degree Program in Midwifery and has successfully passed the National Midwifery Certification Exam. This position offers a collaborative practice setting working with OB/GYN physicians and advanced practice providers.

Competitive compensation and benefits; Epic electronic medical records; office and hospital are adjacent.

Click APPLY Online now to submit CV to Marian Whitlock.

UMMS hospitals and health care facilities are equal opportunity employers and proud of an environment of diversity.

www.umuch.org | Search Physician and APP Jobs