

Onsite and remote access to medical reference and research resources through Ovid Discovery

The screenshot shows the Ovid Discovery website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with tabs for "One Search", "e-Journals", "E-books", "Databases", "UpToDate", "PubMed", and "Google Scholar". Below this is a large red search bar with the text "Discover: search for articles, books, and more" and a search input field labeled "Enter keywords...". There are also links for "Bookmarks | Saved Searches" and "Advanced Search". Below the search bar, there are several featured resources: "Have Questions about Discovery? Here's the Quick Start Guide" (Ovid Discovery User Guide), "Clinical Orthopaedics and Related Research" (with a cover image), "JAMA" (The New England journal of medicine), "Critical Care Medicine", "Nursing Resources" (including "Lippincott Advisor" and "Lippincott Procedures"), and "Clinician Resources" (including "UpToDate", "PubMed", "Lexicomp", and "Micromedex").

Medical Library access delivers quick search of UM Upper Chesapeake Resources:

Ovid Discovery centralizes most content at UM Upper Chesapeake in one location that can be searched with a single Biomedical search box – this includes Ovid, UpToDate, Journals, ebooks, Cochrane, drug databases, and full-text content available on PubMed Central.

Onsite: From the intranet, go to “Ovid, e-library” under “Staff Quick Links”

For remote access: Set up your personal account (email & password) in the Hospital, then go to: <https://umuch.ovid.com/> for remote access.
