BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE OF HEALTH CARE IN PRINCE GEORGE’S COUNTY

UM CAPITAL REGION MEDICAL CENTER
The UM Capital Region Medical Center is under construction in Largo, Md., with a target opening date in the spring of 2021. The new medical center will offer the residents of Prince George’s County an expanded line of services including cancer and oncology, cardiovascular, women’s health, surgery and orthopedics.

UM LAUREL MEDICAL CENTER
In January 2019, UM Laurel Regional Hospital was transformed into UM Laurel Medical Center to meet the changing needs of the Laurel-Beltsville community. UM Laurel Medical Center provides expanded emergency, outpatient and behavioral health services. These services will also be enhanced through an ongoing renovation to the medical center that is expected to begin in late 2019 and be completed in late 2021.
