

Resident Didactics:

Resident didactics follows a 2 year curriculum and has blocks in General Oto, Rhinology, Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, Head and Neck, Otolaryngology and Neurotology and Laryngology. Anatomy and Temporal Bone labs are also done throughout the year.

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
7am: Resident led didactics	7am: Otolaryngology Conference 1 st and 3 rd Tuesday	7am: Junior resident intro lectures (July and August only) 4pm: Head and Neck Tumor Board	7am: Grand Rounds 8am: Faculty led didactics

Courses:

1. Temporal bone surgical dissection course – all third year residents.
2. ORL Emergencies boot camp – all 2nd year residents
3. Foreign Body Pediatric Airway Endoscopy Course (CHOP, Feb) – third year residents.
4. ORL Rising Chief BootCamp (UPenn, May) – Fourth year residents.
5. Chief residents may pick a course of their choosing

Meetings

1. American Academy of Otolaryngology Annual Meeting (Sept) – chief residents and residents who present original research
2. Association for Research in Otolaryngology or other conferences – pending presentation of original research.